

TEAM KENTON TIMES

Good morning, «First Name»

In this issue:

- State testing results released
- Fort Wright Ribbon Cutting
- Dixie Heights is Duke Energy's School of the Week!
- News from the Team Kenton Foundation

State Accountability Scores

This week, the Kentucky Department of Education released the state accountability scores for the 2017-18 school year. Once again, Kenton County scored above the state average! Here is a recap of the scores. For complete results, click here:

VIDEO: Dr. Webb's recap of state accountability scores

Ribbon Cutting at Fort Wright Elementary

Sunday will be an exciting day in the Kenton County School District! Fort Wright Elementary is holding a Ribbon Cutting ceremony and Open House on Sept. 30 from 2 to 4 p.m. Everyone is invited to come see the renovations that have taken place at FWE over the last several months!

Dixie Heights is Duke Energy's School of the Week!

Local12 visited Dixie Heights this week. The school was named the Duke Energy School of the Week for how they rally around a special teammate on the football team. . Dixie was featured on the Local12 morning show and received $1,000 from Duke Energy! Watch the clip here.

What's the Point fundraiser for TKF

The weather is looking PERFECT tomorrow (Sept. 29) for What's the Point at Roebing Point in Covington, which will raise funds for the Team Kenton Foundation. This event will feature live music, lots of activities for kids, food and drinks. Please come down to Roebing Point any time between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. and have a great time for a great cause!

Anyone can make a one-time donation to TKF! Visit www.teamkentonfoundation.org/donate for more information.